WELCOME AND CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR NEW SUMMERTIME SWIMMING POOL OR SPA!

Owning your own pool / spa brings many benefits including being introduced to a healthy and active lifestyle, fun and years of entertainment for your family and friends whilst adding value to your home.

This booklet details some important information and certain requirements to assist you with the correct maintenance of your pool / spa, equipment and water balance. By following the recommendations and advice provided, you will maximise your enjoyment, avoid unnecessary problems and safeguard your investment.

Happy Swimming!

1.0 STRUCTURAL BOND BEAM

A. BOND BEAM

Your fibreglass pool / spa is installed with a structural bond beam, that is reinforced with structural re-enforcing steel and is sized to match your coping paver. The maximum size bond beam allowed is 580mm wide. If concrete is installed wider than 580mm, the expansion pressure from the concrete can cause structural damage to the pool / spa shell. When pouring additional concrete around the bond beam area you need to drill slippery dowelling of 12mm in diameter every 450mm apart and install a 10mm expansion joint around the entire perimeter of the bond beam. This will stop any vertical movement between the finished surfaces and allow for expansion between the two concrete slabs.

MINERAL WATER CHILLI & ZEP SYSTEM

ZEP ENERGY EFFICIENCY

We have teamed up with one of Australia's leading solar energy providers, designing the integrated Zero Emissions Pool (ZEP) system. ZEP matches the ideal solar and energy efficiency system to your pool requirements, allowing you to heat your pool to 27°C for up to 7 months of the year, as well as filter and clean your pool for the remaining months – without incurring any additional energy costs.
